

Silitech reported January 2016 global consolidated revenue NT$208M

New Taipei City, Taiwan, R.O.C. - February 5, 2016 - Silitech Technology Corp. (TWSE: 3311) today announced January 2016 global consolidated revenues were approximately NT$208 million, a decrease of 35.5% M-o-M. The decline of January sales resulted from traditionally slow season and inventory adjustment at customer end. In terms of revenues breakdown by application, 3C input devices were approximately NT$129 million, representing 62.3% of total revenues, and automotive parts approximately NT$78 million, accounting for 37.7% of total revenues.
